

Moon Valley Farm, Inc. CSA Member Agreement 2017

Please sign me, _____ (name) up for a season of homegrown produce from Moon Valley Farm! Your farmers are Emma Jagoz & Jason James, and we are passionate about growing great food for your table.

The CSA harvest is protected by sustainable and organic practices such as organic soil improvements, row covers, crop rotation, and continuous plantings. I will share both the risks and rewards of the growing season along with the other members and the growers.

As a CSA member, you agree to:

1. Bring your own bags to carry your veggies!
2. Be respectful of our pickup site hosts' property, patrons, and neighbors.
3. Pick up your share within the stated time frame. If there's ever a day when you can't pick up your share, you may send someone else to pick it up for you. You may request to pick up your share on a different day or week once per season if you give at least 48 hours of notice to the farmers. All shares not picked up (without prior notice) are forfeited for the week.
4. Pay your $75 deposit by March 1 (which does count toward the total cost), and pay in full by May 1. We greatly appreciate early payments – you may pay the whole fee at any point. Checks can be made out to Moon Valley Farm and sent to 1124 Greenway Rd., Cockeysville, MD 21030. Payment can also be made via PayPal through our website, www.moonvalleyfarm.net under CSA for an extra fee of 2.9% +$0.30.

I understand that if at any time I wish to forfeit my share of the harvest, it is my responsibility to find a replacement to take over my share.

We do not offer refunds as we invest the requisite funds provided by our community at the start of the season in fertilizer, seed, equipment, etc... in order to produce the highest quality organic vegetables for our CSA members. No exceptions.

I understand that this is a legally binding contract. I understand that I am making a commitment to Moon Valley Farm and recognize that there is no guarantee on the exact amounts and types of produce I will receive for my share.
